

WATER CONSERVATION POLICY

B. K. Birla College of Arts, Science and Commerce (Empowered Autonomous Status) is a premier Institute of higher education located at Kalyan, Dist. Thane, Maharashtra, India. The College aspires to be a nodal centre catering to the diverse needs of the society and nation by grooming students into excellent human resource and providing testing consultancy of facilitating state-of-the-art facilities and stimulating teaching-learning, skill development and environmental services.

We, at B. K. Birla College of Arts, Science and Commerce (Empowered Autonomous Status), Kalyan, Thane, Maharashtra, India are committed to:

- Promote water conservation through education programs, awareness campaigns and community engagement.
- Encourage water conservation practices through water harvesting systems to recharge ground water table.
- Implement water efficient technologies like low flow water saving devices, water sensors, etc.
- Recycle wastewater through treatment processes.
- Regular monitoring of water quality through periodic analysis of potable water and wastewater.
- Minimize water wastage.
- Take efforts towards meeting Sustainable Development Goals at institutional level.

5th June 2024

Principal
B. K. Birla College, Kalyan